

List of activities carried out and reports produced in the framework of the EU funded project LIFE-92-2/INT/02
CYPRUS-EGYPT-ISRAEL
(1993-1995)

Development of a Subregional System for combating major marine pollution incidents affecting or likely to affect the territorial sea, coasts and other related interests of Cyprus, Egypt and Israel.

The project started on 1 January 1993 and ended with the last activity planned under the project, the Fifth Meeting of the Steering Committee, held in Brussels from 7 to 8 December 1995.

The project produced the following outputs:

3 national reports containing inter alia recommendations for improvements of national systems for preparedness and response to accidental marine pollution.

3 estimates of additional equipment required for an effective response to oil spills.

A training programme comprising proposals for national training courses, subregional training course and a joint exercise.

A Subregional Contingency Plan.

Activities conducted under the Project:

- 5 Meetings of the Steering Committee (2 in Brussels, 1 in Egypt, 1 in Cyprus and 1 in Israel).
- A mission of a Team of Consultants to the three countries (May/June 1993).
- The drafting of a Subregional Contingency Plan.
- A Meeting of a Working Group of National Experts (Nicosia, Cyprus, 8-10 November 1994).
- 3 National Training Courses on Accidental Marine Pollution Preparedness and Response for medium-level personnel (Cyprus, 13-17 March 1995, Israel, 19-23 March 1995 and Egypt, 26-30 March 1995).
